A defective product is defined herein as, a product which is unusable for the purpose in which it was being sold for, which is deemed defective upon the time of its delivery to the customer due to the manufacturing and/or workmanship.

We would like to accept the return of all products, but we cannot accept returns except in the case of an obvious defective product or fulfillment mistake on our part within 30 days from the date of shipment.

All returned products are inspected and then destroyed to ensure maximum health and safety precautions. No returned products are ever repackaged or resold.

About Us

We are a small family-owned and operated business in the United States of America. Our business was formed at the beginning of 2022, with our organic lip balm being the first product released after several years of testing. We hope that you will enjoy our current and future legendary quality products, which go above and beyond USDA Certified Organic standards, as much as our family does. Help spread the word!
